

Benton City Planning Commission Comprehensive Plan Revision

The next 20 years of Benton City and surrounding areas are being planned now!

Citizen public input and participation is requested

WHY IT MATTERS

Benton City is updating its Comprehensive Plan. Input from residents, business owners, property owners, community groups, and students will form the conversation about the city's future. It is important the city hears from as many people as possible.

The Comprehensive Plan is a document to guide the development of our town and surrounding areas.

BECOME INVOLVED AND PROVIDE YOUR INPUT

Visit the Benton City website for announcements and information, access draft documents, maps, meeting notices and materials. Visit <http://ci.benton-city.wa.us/documents.aspx> or stop by City Hall, 708 9th Street to review the documents.

Request to be added to the mailing list by writing to shaug@ci.benton-city.wa.us

Attend a workshop or meeting and provide your input.

Participate from home by providing your comments via email or in writing to attention Stephanie Haug, Po Box 70, Benton City, WA 99320.

Comments are to be submitted to Stephanie Haug, City Clerk at Benton City, City Hall or mail to P.O. Box 70, Benton City, WA 99320 or stop by City Hall, 708 9th Street to review the documents.

GET CAUGHT UP

Workshops have occurred with more workshops to come. Visit <http://ci.benton-city.wa.us/documents.aspx> or stop by City Hall, or contact Stephanie Haug, City Clerk at Benton City, City Hall to review the documents.

UPCOMING MEETING AND WORKSHOPS

Public Notices for meetings and workshops will be published in the classified legals section of the Tri-City Herald, distributed with water and sewer bills in the Benton City News flyer, City Calendar section. For further information contact Stephanie Haug, City Clerk at Benton City, City Hall (509) 588-3322, or in writing to mail to P.O. Box 70, Benton City, WA 99320.